

PEOPLE POWER IN NORTH DEVON

TUESDAY 17 SEPTEMBER 2019

2.00 PM – 6.00 PM

North Devon people have joined together to work for change in their local communities over many centuries. Come along to see how people have campaigned on a wide variety of themes, from women's suffrage to rural issues.

FREE ENTRY
REFRESHMENTS AVAILABLE

- Discover the role cartoons played in nineteenth century politics
- Find out more about local campaigns for the north Devon link road, the new hospital and saving the railway
- Drop in for a rolling programme of short talks, displays and tours behind the scenes

VENUE:

NORTH DEVON RECORD OFFICE
BARNSTAPLE LIBRARY
TULY STREET
BARNSTAPLE EX31 1EL